INTRODUCTION

There is a rise in the amount of crime in our country and most of the people are unaware of the criminal laws under IPC (Indian Penal Code). Therefore, it becomes necessary to make the citizens aware of all kinds of laws put forth by our constitution against crime so that people come forward to register case against it. This project is executed especially for this purpose.

The Safelency is an online law related information system is a software system that contains all the laws of IPC so that people can come and search for the laws for respective crime. The laws are categorized into different sections according to some keywords. There is also search option available where user can find or search according to his requirement by entering his query. There is also a facility available for users to get contact of lawyers. An enquiry form is provided where user can ask their query and can also register case and the form is sent to the court authority. This project contains information of all the respective courts in area for respective crimes.

This online system is developed by using Python library and supported by a MySQL database to store user specific details.

OUTCOME OF THE PROJECT:

The application of legal help can be broad and diverse, as legal issues can arise in various aspects of life. Some common applications of legal help include:

Criminal defence: Legal help can be sought for criminal defence, which includes representation in criminal cases, plea bargaining, and negotiating with the prosecution.

Civil litigation: Legal help can be sought for civil litigation, which includes disputes related to contracts, property, personal injury, and other civil matters.

Family law: Legal help can be sought for family law matters, such as divorce, child custody, and adoption.

Immigration law: Legal help can be sought for immigration law matters, such as obtaining visas, green cards, and citizenship.

Employment law: Legal help can be sought for employment law matters, such as discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, and wage and hour disputes.

Estate planning: Legal help can be sought for estate planning matters, such as creating wills, trusts, and other legal documents related to inheritance and asset distribution.

Business law: Legal help can be sought for business law matters, such as incorporation, contracts, and intellectual property rights.

Overall, the application of legal help is vast and covers many areas of law. Seeking legal help can provide individuals with the guidance and representation they need to protect their legal rights and interests.
